Estate Planning Tips

- Ensure they have a list of passwords and account numbers if you pay your bills online. Make sure they have any other necessary A Power of attorney designation is only good while someone is living. That person may be named executor.
- Make sure to set up a medical power of attorney and a living will in the event you are unable to make medical decisions. Let your family know if you want to be an organ donor.
- Update your life insurance policy to make sure there is enough to cover a funeral. A pre-planned funeral may be a great option. It makes sure to follow your last wishes and gives your family a peace of mind.
- DO NOT keep the only copy of your will in your safety deposit box. No one will be able to access it unless they have access to your safety deposit box.
- Confirm your executor has a copy of your will.

- Make sure someone in your family or executor knows where important documents are located.
- passwords.
- Add Payable on Death (POD) on all your bank accounts. They will not have access to your accounts until after death; however, this will avoid probate. The financial institution will need to verify their name, social number and birthdate.
- Review all beneficiaries on all insurance policies, IRA's, stocks, and other investments.
- If there are large sums of money left to heirs a trust may be a good option. Contact an attorney for legal advice.
- Check with the BMV if you are the sole owner of your car. You can set up a transfer on death beneficiary.
- If you have minor children decide who will get custody upon your death (if you are a couple and both pass at the same time) make sure you have a legal document.
- If you have pets make sure you have a plan for them as well.

FUN ACTIVITIES

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Each month, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library mails a high quality, age-appropriate book to all registered children 1 to 5, addressed to them, at no cost to the child's family. Countless parents have shared how excited their child is when their new book arrives each month. Many groups and individuals work hard behind the scenes to make that special moment possible for each child.

Log on to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library to register your child or children.

Cleves Christmas Walk

The event takes place on the first Saturday of December and is perfect for families. Most activities are free and include a visit from Santa. Elvis often makes a special appearance. Local businesses host events such as ornaments and cookie decorating, face painting, and raffles. There are two craft shows—one at the Senior Center and another at Town Hall. The day also features a parade, a tree lighting ceremony, and many other exciting activities.

Miami Township Library

Hey Kids!! - Did you know you can stop by the Miami Township Library in Cleves to receive a healthy shelf-stable snack while visiting? This is available after school and during the summer.
